ABOUT US

At Noise, it is not about us but about you!

With the aim of creating an extraordinary experience for you, we are continuously striving to come up with new and innovative quality products.

We believe in more than just existing and that's why our products help you live the moment whether it is through our action cameras, speakers, headphones or smart wearables.

Constant introspection and feedback from our customers is what pushes us to outdo ourselves every time with every product.

We are the Noise makers, believers and doers with a common belief of bringing together technology and happiness to the masses.
